The court expects that the parties will proceed with the settlement conference in good faith and attempt to resolve all or part of the case. Unless otherwise specifically authorized by the court in advance of the settlement conference, the following individuals must participate in the settlement conference: (1) all of the attorney(s) who will try the case; (2) the parties; and (3) individuals with full authority to negotiate and settle the case, on any terms.

- (3) an itemized estimate of your party’s expected costs for further discovery, pretrial, and trial matters, in specific dollar terms;
- (4) your best estimate of the probability that plaintiff will obtain a finding of liability should this case proceed to trial, in percentage terms;

- (6) a history of settlement discussions, including:
 - (a) a statement of your expectations for settlement discussions;
 - (b) a listing of any past and present settlement offers from any party (including all terms);
 - (c) whether your party would consider making the opening offer or demand, and what that offer might be¹;
- (7) a list of the individuals who will be participating in the settlement conference on your party’s behalf, including each participant’s name and, if appropriate, title;
- (8) identification of any related cases or of any other cases that the parties might wish to discuss at this settlement conference; and

¹ Please note that Judge Peterson will consider this response, among others, in evaluating whether proceeding with a settlement conference appears worthwhile.

(9) a completed worksheet (blank version attached) highlighting your responses to certain of the above questions.

In addition, a joint statement quoting the specific proposed language for the Settlement Agreement and Affidavit including each party's contentions with respect thereto.

Judge Peterson will hold a short, pre-settlement conference telephone discussion on February 8, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. (dial-in number: 1-888-557-8511; passcode: 1273468). Only the lead attorney from each side² should participate. At Judge Peterson's discretion, the joint telephonic discussion may be followed by private telephonic discussions between the judge and each party.
